

„ELTIS Training Programme for Mid Career Urban Transport Professionals from New EU Member States and Accession Countries”

The ELTIS project consortium cordially invites you to its forthcoming international training on 14-16 April, 2008 in Budapest. The topics include:

- Urban road safety
- Cycling
- Urban traffic management

The training course will be followed by a half day study visit in Budapest. Participation at the course is free of charge.

For more information and an application form please contact:

Gabor Heves

The Regional Environmental Center for Central and Eastern Europe

E-mail: gheves@rec.org

Web: www.eltis.org

Telephone: (36-26) 504-045

Application deadline: 14 March, 2008